

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Love Foundation's primary mission is to inspire people to love each other without reservation and challenge us to become sources of courage, generosity and support to one another; and

WHEREAS, Global Love Day 2006 is a celebration that expands the individual consciousness as we are given a new opportunity each day to express ourselves, listen to our own wisdom and trust the inner guidance that is a part of the human spirit; and

WHEREAS, with tolerance and compassion we embrace diversity and together, the people of Jackson, Mississippi can make a monumental difference through the power of love; and

WHEREAS, the year 2005 was unusually eventful in our ever-changing world and our resolve tested almost beyond limits as we all shared in the universal bond of love, interconnected and interdependent, through tragedy and triumph; and

WHEREAS, the simple theme of Global Love Day 2006, "Love Begins With Me," encourages us to embrace and practice inner peace in our personal daily lives; and

WHEREAS, The Love Foundation, Inc. invites all of us to observe May 1, 2006 as Global Love Day, a day of forgiveness and unconditional love.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank E. Melton, Mayor of the City of Jackson, Mississippi, do hereby proclaim May 1, 2006 as in Jackson, Mississippi and urge all citizens to recognize and participate in its observance.

"GLOBAL LOVE DAY"

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Jackson, Mississippi, the 1st day of May, 2006

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Frank E. Melton", written over a horizontal line.

Frank E. Melton, Mayor