Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I offer my greetings as you gather for the fourth annual Global Love Day.

On behalf of the residents of the State of Florida, I applaud your work in promoting peace and understanding. You are also to be commended for your desire to serve others and make a difference in our communities.

Although I am unable to attend the event, please convey my greetings to everyone in attendance. I extend my best wishes for an enjoyable and memorable day.

Sincerely,

Mel Martinez
