

Love Begins With Me

By Stacey Edwards

*Love seems so far away.
Too bad it seems they don't care.
Love begins,
And love ends.
Everyone stands and stares,
Blind to all their fears.
Love heals,
And love mends.
You wish it would all end.
The world would be beautiful
With love.
All would heal and be right.
Just take a look,
You would be mesmerized.
All it takes is a little love
For that to happen.
You have to see.
Love begins in you.
Love yourself,
And others will see
How love will make you change,
A world apart,
Diverse people,
We are all the same
With one bond,
Love.
Love begins with me.*
