

WHERE TO START?

The world seems to need Love more than ever today.
How can just one person make a difference, you may say.

Want to make the world a better place?
Start by connecting with the source of Loving Grace.

Looking deep in your own heart is where you begin.
By opening yourself to Love and letting it flow in.

When your heart is filled with Love to overflowing,
Your capacity to pass it on keeps growing and growing.

If Love could flow like this, think how the world could be.
If you want to change the world, remind yourself,

LOVE BEGINS WITH ME.

Judith Grace Hastings
February 23, 2017