The Love Foundation Proclaims “Global Love Day” for May 1st Annual Worldwide Celebration

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, April 23, 2008 — Tampa, Florida based nonprofit, The Love Foundation (TLF), invites all citizens of the world to join in celebrating Global Love Day on May 1st. Since the initial launch of Global Love Day in 2004, The Love Foundation has acknowledged responses from individuals and organizations in over 116 countries along with over 172 cumulative proclamations from governors, mayors, councils and commissions with over 40 new 2008 proclamations with many more to follow from prominent leaders from throughout the US and Canada.

The inspiring message at the heart of the celebration shares the vision that: We are one humanity on this planet; All life is interconnected and interdependent; All share in the Universal bond of love; Love begins with self acceptance and forgiveness; With tolerance and compassion we embrace diversity; and Together we make a difference through love. TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day honors humanity as a whole and the power of love within each individual. When we, as individuals, realize our potential to love unconditionally, we transform ourselves and the planet at the same time. The amazing responses from so many diverse elected leaders indicate that we are ready to embrace greater peace, compassion, tolerance and unity in our world. Together we can make a difference by joining our energy during this one day celebration of humanity.”

Awareness for this event is spreading largely via the internet and numerous volunteers. By simply accessing the Foundation’s main web site at <http://www.thelovefoundation.com> people of all backgrounds and cultures, like musicians, artists, government and religious leaders, authors, homemakers, students,
