The Love Foundation Announces Second Annual “Global Love Day” for May 1, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, January 13, 2005 — It’s all about LOVE in global proportions! The Love Foundation is once again inviting people around the world to join together in celebrating and expanding LOVE during a one day planetary event encompassing all nations, all people, and all life on May 1, 2005. This second annual Global Love Day with the theme “Love Begins With Me” will take place as various celebrations around the globe.

Since its initial launch last year, The Love Foundation has already received responses from individuals and organizations in over 60 countries along with over a dozen proclamations from US mayors and governors endorsing the idea. TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day is a global recognition of humanity and the power of love within each individual.” Awareness for this event is spreading largely by the internet and numerous volunteers. By accessing the Foundation’s main web site at <http://www.thelovefoundation.com> people of all backgrounds including musicians, artists, government and religious leaders, authors, homemakers, students, NGO’s, and businesses from around the world are sharing their support.

The Love Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Their hope is to assist people by building a practical foundation and understanding of love within individuals and society as a whole. Their purpose and vision is to further the understanding and application of unconditional love through education, research and charitable programs. For more information, contact John T.
