TLF Founders to Attend Local Arlington/DC Metro Celebration on April 29th honoring Global Love Day

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, April 19, 2007 — Tampa, Florida based nonprofit founders of The Love Foundation (TLF) will be attending the local Washington, DC metro Global Love Day celebration being held in advance on April 29, 2007. TLF Founder and President, Harold W. Becker, along with Cofounder and Vice President, John T. Goltz, will be guests of an Arlington group's presentation honoring Global Love Day for May 1st. The Love Foundation is the inspiration behind this annual worldwide celebration of humanity now in its fourth year.

The local celebration will be held on the afternoon of Sunday, April 29th from 3 to 7 pm in Arlington, Virginia, and is being hosted by the T.A.O. Humor Center and its founder, Miriam Wilson. Wilson has hosted an event each year in honor of Global Love Day since its inception in 2004 and wanted to include the TLF Founders as part of this year's gathering. A variety of presentations and activities are planned sharing the day's main theme of "love begins with me." This "Angel Pot Latch and Potluck" event is open to anyone wishing to participate.

Global Love Day was conceived by The Love Foundation, and since its initial launch, they have acknowledged responses from individuals and organizations in over 98 countries along with over 115 cumulative proclamations and documents from prominent governors, mayors, councils and commissions. TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, "This day honors our collective humanity and the power of love within each individual. I believe this amazing response from so many diverse leaders, groups and individuals, indicates we are ready to embrace greater peace, compassion, tolerance and unity in our world.”

Equally inspiring is the core message which has already been translated into 22 languages and is the basis of the numerous proclamations. It shares the vision that: We are one humanity on this planet; All life is interconnected and interdependent; All share in the Universal bond of love; Love begins with self acceptance and forgiveness; With tolerance and compassion we embrace diversity; and Together we make a difference through love. “When we, as individuals, realize our potential to love unconditionally, we transform ourselves and the planet at the same time” shares TLF Founder Becker, “Together we can make a difference by joining our energy during this one day celebration of humanity.”
