FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ORLANDO, FL, April 28, 2026 — Orlando, Florida based nonprofit, The Love Foundation (TLF), reached a new milestone for its Global Love Day initiative when it received its 1,000th official proclamation this week. The most recent came from the Connecticut Governor and is one of 39 new 2026 proclamations from governors, mayors, councils and officials received so far this year.

Since the initial launch of Global Love Day in 2004, The Love Foundation has acknowledged responses from individuals and organizations in over 175 countries along with the now over 1,000 cumulative proclamations from over 300 cities in the US, Canada and UK, along with 30 US Governors, and even His Holiness The Dalai Lama choosing to honor this vision.

TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day honors our collective humanity and the power of love within each individual. I believe this amazing response from so many diverse elected leaders indicates we are ready to embrace greater peace, compassion, and unity in our world.”

Equally inspiring is the core message translated into 40 languages and is the basis of the numerous proclamations. It shares the vision that: We are one humanity on this planet; All life is interconnected and interdependent; All share in the Universal bond of love; Love begins with self-acceptance and forgiveness; With respect and compassion we embrace diversity; and Together we make a difference through love.

“When we, as individuals, realize our potential to love unconditionally, we transform ourselves and the planet at the same time”, shares TLF Founder Becker, “Together we can make a difference by joining our energy during this one-day celebration of humanity.”
