The Love Foundation Announces Art, Essay and Poetry Invitational For Global Love Day

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, March 4, 2004 — It's all about LOVE and CREATIVITY in global proportions! The Love Foundation is inviting students from around the world to submit their original Art, Essay or Poetry piece in honor of the first annual Global Love Day set for May 1, 2004. Each submission shall be based on this year's theme of "Love Begins With Me." (Visit www.thelovefoundation.com for info and guidelines)

Students from kindergarten to college are invited to share their creative expression of global love in one or more of the categories. Each submission should reflect a universal understanding of love, unity, tolerance, compassion and represent the idea of Global Love Day and this year's theme. On May 1, The TLF Board of Director's will choose one Finalist from each group and present the Director's Award. One submission will be selected out of all categories to receive the special Founder's Award for the piece that best represents the vision. There is no fee and all entries must be postmarked and mailed to P.O. Box 10114, Tampa, Florida 33679-0114, USA, by April 20, 2004 for consideration. Global Love Day is the inspiration of The Love Foundation's founder and president, Harold Becker, and is a celebration of humanity.

The Love Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Their hope is to assist people by building a practical foundation and understanding of love within individuals and society as a whole. Their purpose and vision is to further the understanding and application of unconditional love through education, research and charitable programs. For more information, contact John T.
