New Jersey Governor and Minneapolis Mayor Latest to Sign Proclamations For Global Love Day On Behalf of Tampa Based Love Foundation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, April 15, 2004 — New Jersey Governor James McGreevey and Minneapolis Mayor R.T. Rybak are the latest to issue proclamations honoring Global Love Day, May 1, 2004. Tampa based non profit, The Love Foundation, which developed the idea for Global Love Day, received the official citations today. They join the growing list with Salt Lake City, Utah; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; and Palm Bay, Florida mayors. Other Mayors and Governors are expected to follow.

In just over four months since its official launch, The Love Foundation received responses from individuals and organizations in over 33 countries showing interest and endorsing the idea. This is the first annual version of Global Love Day and this year's theme is "Love Begins With Me." TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, "This day is a global recognition of humanity and the power of love within each individual." Awareness for this event is spreading largely by the internet, word of mouth and volunteers. By accessing the Foundation's main web site at www.thelovefoundation.com, musicians, artists, authors, homemakers, students, NGO's, and businesses from around the world are sharing their support

The Love Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Their hope is to assist people by building a practical foundation and understanding of love within individuals and society as a whole. Their purpose and vision is to further the understanding and application of unconditional love through education, research and charitable programs. For more information, contact *John T.
