TLF Nonprofit Receives 500th Proclamation For Annual Worldwide Celebration of “Global Love Day” for May 1st

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Orlando, FL, March 1, 2016 — Orlando, Florida based nonprofit, The Love Foundation (TLF), reached a new milestone for its Global Love Day initiative when it received its 500th official proclamation this week. The most recent came from Vancouver, BC Canada and is one of 20 new 2016 proclamations from governors, mayors, councils and commissions received just this past month. Dozens of prominent leaders from Maine to California, Canada to Florida, have issued documents already and many more are expected to follow in the coming weeks as the thirteenth annual May 1st date approaches.

Since the initial launch of Global Love Day in 2004, The Love Foundation has acknowledged responses from individuals and organizations in over 150 countries along with the now over 500 cumulative proclamations. TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day honors our collective humanity and the power of love within each individual. I believe this amazing response from so many diverse elected leaders indicate we are ready to embrace greater peace, compassion, tolerance and unity in our world.”

Equally inspiring is the core message which has already been translated into 38 languages and is the basis of the numerous proclamations. It shares the vision that: We are one humanity on this planet; All life is interconnected and interdependent; All share in the Universal bond of love; Love begins with self-acceptance and forgiveness; With respect and compassion we embrace diversity; and Together we make a difference through love. “When we, as individuals, realize our potential to love unconditionally, we transform ourselves and the planet at the same time” shares TLF Founder Becker, “Together we can make a difference by joining our energy during this one-day celebration of humanity.”

Awareness for this event is spreading largely via the internet and numerous volunteers. By simply accessing the Foundation’s main web site at <http://www.thelovefoundation.com> people of all backgrounds and cultures, like musicians, artists, government and religious leaders, authors, homemakers, students, NGO’s, and businesses from around the world, are sharing their support and hosting events on May 1st in their local communities.

The Love Foundation is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Established in 2000, TLF has become an internationally recognized leading resource for understanding and applying unconditional love. Their vision is to assist people by building a practical foundation and experience of love within individuals and society as a whole, through their education, research and charitable programs.
