

LOVE BEGINS WITH ME

Philip D. Brown

Everybody has a role to play;
A word to say,
And something to share
To make this world a better place,
Peaceful place,
Surrounded with the light of unconditional
Love.
But our mind is all that matters;
It is a construction ground,
Creating good and evil.

The meditations of our hearts
Will determine what we can give out;
Our thoughts have robbed us!
Robbed us from enjoying heaven on earth,
It is time to concentrate our positive energies on love;
Unconditional love,
So, let's all say; "Love Begins with me"
Let this always be our new year's resolution,
Let it be our thought;
To see unconditional love,
Think unconditional love,
Play unconditional love,
Sing unconditional love,
Dream unconditional love,
Embrace unconditional love,
And share unconditional love.
