

Love Begins with me.

How to love, unconditionally,
without judgement, but with respect.
How to live, with love from others,
without judgement, but with acceptance.
How to teach, with love,
how to be in love
with all living things,
with each other,
and more.

How to show you love.
How to speak with love,
with regard for life,
and liberty.
How to love with
freedom,
knowledge,
laughter,
and be grateful.

I give to all, my unconditional love.
The love that's within me,
is my greatest gift.
I freely give it to all.
No exception.
No expectation.
Just love,
my love,
As,
Love begins with me.
