

Submission of poem - GLOBAL LOVE DAY 2022

A NEW BEGINNING

Aggressive and hate-filled actions
Only lead to death and destruction,
Often with ego-centric reflections,
Why is 'love' betrayed by humans?

With love, we can feed the hunger
With love, we can save the sufferer,
With love, we can entwine together,
Eternal delights, that radiate forever.

A sprout of love, once it shoots out
It plucks out all worries and doubts,
Such a tempting feeling, love thrusts,
With equal concern for all, it thirsts.

Removing social and cultural disparity
Yes, love treads the paths of solidarity;
Aspiring to master and muster humility
Love spreads an aroma to live in unity.

Love holds everything, heals anything
Once it begins, it changes everything,
It can influence the ways of thinking,
And, ultimately can stir a new beginning.
