

Love in me

I care to be fair to be here to be there,

Love is universal an innate in nature.

Humanity is love, love is humanity,

Joys of soul and flesh giving all dignity.

Love isn't only I but it's you and we,

It's a wave that begins with me,

Hating oneself, sharing cannot be.

My blood is yours and my soul is too,

We're one nature, and can't be two.
